

Missouri 4-H Youth Event Acceptance

Education events and activities are coordinated by the University of Missouri 4-H Youth Development Programs. All participants must observe the following guidelines for conduct:

- Participate fully in all sessions.
- Show respect for property/facilities used during the event and assume financial responsibility for any damages caused.
- Follow the established agenda and expectations for behavior.
- Use appropriate language and wear acceptable clothing at 4-H activities and events.
- Use no alcohol, stimulants, non-prescription drugs or tobacco products.

I understand and accept the responsibility for following the above guidelines and understand that failure to do so will result in dismissal from the event or activity. Further, I accept financial responsibility for damages to property or materials, travel costs and/or program costs that might result from violation of this agreement. I understand and agree that in consideration of the acceptance in these activities, we release 4-H, the Curators of the University of Missouri, their respective officers, agents and/or employees from all liability and loss (including court costs and attorney fees) resulting from any property damage, personal injury and bodily injury including death to me in the course of these events. We will be bound by all rules and regulations while participating in said events.

Note: During enrollment in the 4HOnline system, youth, parents/guardians and volunteers must accept the policies of Missouri 4-H in order to participate in programs and events.
