

LEADING IN UNCHARTERED WATERS

OPENING MIXER

- Clothespin Samurai
 - Read Scenario – 50 Ways to Use Your Noodles p. 77

DEFINITION OF LEADERSHIP

- Create GROUP definition of leadership and a good leader
- Present my definition of leadership, comparing similarities
 - Know the group you are leading
 - Motivation
 - Communication
 - Creativity
 - Problem Solving
 - Good Listening
 - Delegation
 - Leadership Styles
 - Planning
 - Team building/group dynamics
 - Facilitation
 - Role Model

KNOW THE GROUP YOU ARE LEADING

- Refer to clothespin Samurai
 - How the samurai used their senses to be aware of surroundings
- Learning Styles
 - Read different learning styles – Public Adventures p. 6
 - Ask for people to raise hand if that is the way that they learn
 - We need to be aware of these styles to help the people we are leading to learn the most possible and work effectively

PROBLEM SOLVING

- Noodle Games – 50 Ways to Use Your Noodle p. 180, 50 More Ways to Use Your Noodle p. 68
 - Refer to the Using Your Noodle handout for steps

CREATIVITY, COMMUNICATION, MOTIVATION

- Everyone line up by Birthday without talking
 - Nonverbal communications is important too
- Outreach Public Speaking
 - Quick tips for public speaking
 - Speaking acronym
- Each groups creates an item with pool noodles and masking tape

- Create a marketing plan for your item
- Present your item and convince us that we MUST HAVE IT
- Everyone must have a verbal part of the presentation
- Be creative

PLANNING, LEADERSHIP STYLES

- Types of Leaders
 - Describe the types of leaders
 - Give each group a scenario
 - Have them come up with a plan of leadership styles that they would use.

DELEGATION, TEAM BUILDING/GROUP DYNAMICS, FACILITATION

- Your Own Game
 - Each groups either creates their own game or finds one from my books to teach and lead with the entire group

GOOD LISTENING

- Question Ball
 - Listen to everyone's responses

ROLE MODEL

- Your Ideal leader
 - Everyone share their ideal leader and why
 - Relates to the skills we identified in the beginning

CLOSING

- Recap of leaderships skills
 - Many more skills than we looked at today
- Team Opener – 50 More Ways to Use Your Noodle p. 47
 - A leader can't do it all alone